STORY

FOX AND THE CROW

Once there was a fox. He was a very hungry. He went to a garden. There he saw a crow . The crow had a piece of bread in his beak . The fox wanted to have it. He asked the crow to sing a song.

He opened his beak. The piece of bread fell down. The fox picked it up and run away . The crow was sad.

MORAL: USE YOUR COMMON SENSE.

UNITY IS STRENGTH

There was an old man who had four sons. They always fought with each other. Their father was tired of them. One day he called his sons and gave each of them a bundle of sticks. He asked each one to break the bundle, but they could not do so. Then he untied the bundle and gave one one stick to each son. The sons broke them easily. The farmer told his sons to stay together because unity is strength.
